Policy

The Special Educational Needs policy is updated annually in the autumn term and is written in line with the new Code of Practice for Special Educational Needs and Disability (SEND) 2014 which replaces the Code of Practice 2001. The code details the rights and responsibilities of parents and children throughout the process.

Whole School Approach to Teaching and Learning:

- ✓ High Quality Teaching and Learning – All teachers are responsible for the learning and progress of every child in their class, including those with SEN.
- ✓ An inclusive, differentiated and personalised approach to enable all learners, including those with SEN, to engage with all aspects of school life.

Our Graduated Response for Learners:

- ✓ Continual monitoring of the quality of teaching
- ✓ Identifying and tracking the progress of children/young people that require support to catch up by:
 - Ongoing curriculum assessments
 - Tracking progress using data
 - Termly meetings between class teachers and SENDCo
 - Further assessments by specialists, including those from external agencies
- ✓ How we identify children that need additional or different provision:
 - Initial concerns raised and addressed through normal classroom practice (by parent of teacher).
 - If the child does not respond, or if their needs are additional or different from normal classroom practice, then the child would be monitored by the teacher and SENDCo and put 'On Alert' on the school register.
 - If the child requires further additional or alternative provision and the school is required to consult with outside agencies, then the child is considered to be receiving 'SEN Support' and the "Assess, plan, do, review" cycle is initiated.
 - In some cases, a child's needs cannot be met by the support outlined and an Education and Health Care Plan is requested.
- ✓ All children/young people identified as requiring SEN Support, or with an Education, Health and Care Plan are on our Record of Need.

We monitor the impact of this training through learning walks, pupil conferencing, follow up staff meetings and drop-in sessions for staff to raise queries. Through these methods we have seen a positive response to the emotion coaching through an improvement in behaviour and even the start of self-regulation in some of the Reception children. It has also evident that the input last year is embedded as children think of the learning skills they have applied during the lessons through the comments they make referring to the characters that link to building learning power as well as the positive response to emotion coaching throughout the school.

Partnerships with other schools and how we manage transitions:

We work with a number of schools in the area in the following ways:

- ✓ SENCo network and cluster meetings within and outside the Peninsula Learning Trust.
- ✓ Year groups and subject leader liaison across the Peninsula Learning Trust.
- ✓ Sharing of good practice ideas.

There have been 9 children on our Record of Need in 2016/17 who made a successful move to other local schools. In addition, successful transition processes were in place for 6 SEN Support children and 3 children with Education and Health Care Plans to their chosen Secondary Schools.

We ensure that the transition from Nursery to Reception is smooth by contacting all Nurseries early in the summer term with a comprehensive transition form, teachers and SENDCo visit the Nurseries and become involved in any meetings with parents, a meeting with all new parents providing comprehensive information packs and opportunity to ask questions, a series of 6 morning sessions for children to visit with their parents, and two one hour transition sessions without parents.

We support the transition from Reception to Year 1 by providing transition sessions for the children to visit their new classroom, the Year 1 teachers also visit the children in their Reception class and share stories and activities.

We help children to make the move from year 2 to 3 by providing transition sessions for the children to visit their new classroom as well as additional opportunities for children to meet their teachers.

Across all transition points from Year to year children are able to visit their new class, teacher and support staff for extended periods. This year, some children spent time walking the new route to and from their new classroom, they took photographs of the staff, route and the classroom to create photo books that they could look at over the summer.

The transition from year 6 to secondary school is supported through close liaison with the class teachers and the SENDCo from Mount Charles with the staff from the Secondary schools. Transition sessions are put in place and additional opportunities are provided for children with Special Educational Needs. Secondary staff are involved in any key meetings between school and parents in the summer term.

Parents are included in this process through meetings with the teachers and SENDCo, open evenings to allow parents to visit and meet the new class teacher and see the classroom.

Ongoing development:
